

May Sarton: Selected Letters, 1915-1954 (Hardback)

By May Sarton

WW Norton Co, United States, 1997. Hardback. Book Condition: New. New.. 244 x 169 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . All her life, May Sarton carried on a voluminous private correspondence-with family, friends, and lovers. From the beginning, as these remarkable letters show, the essence of an extraordinary human being was present, her gifts ready to unfurl and mature. Fittingly, an early letter thanks parents for books. Later we enter the world of the theater, then years rich with study, travel, teaching, and the discipline of craft. Sarton's deep anguish as World War II approaches pervades many letters, but readers will also encounter the things that gave Sarton joy: her love of flowers, her affection for animals, her celebration of beauty in all its guises. As Sarton divides her time between America and Europe, in an era when ocean voyages were the norm, illustrious acquaintances and intimates are introduced, among them Eva Le Gallienne, Elizabeth Bowen, Virginia Woolf, Muriel Rukeyser, Julian and Juliette Huxley, and Louise Bogan. Always, Sarton's voice is clear and courageous, startlingly candid about her passions, her moods, and her vulnerabilities. Her words, seeming as fresh as when they were...

Reviews

A very wonderful book with lucid and perfect answers. It is probably the most incredible book I have studied. It's been designed in an exceptionally simple way and is particularly just after I finished reading through this publication by which in fact transformed me, alter the way in my opinion.

-- Macey Schneider

Complete manual! It's such a great study. It really is written in straightforward phrases rather than hard to understand. You are going to like the way the article writer create this publication.
