Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: .Golden Rule-- Whatsoever ye would that men should do to you do ye even so to them --and be content to accept what has been called the Silver Rule-- Whatsoever men do to you, do you even so to them --that is if others will treat our Elders as we treat Ministers of other demoninations who visit us in Utah and in other places where our people are located, we shall have no reason to complain. Reputable representatives of any faith are welcome to speak in the meeting houses of the Latterday Saints. It is only lately that Dr. Watson (Ian McLaren) of Liverpool occupied the Assembly Hall in Salt Lake City, and Rev. Mr. Moody the large Tabernacle; Gtn. Booth of Salvation Army fame was accorded that same courtesy. Lately the Tabernacle has been occupied by Father Younan who gave a series of discourses on different phases of the Catholic faith. This is in marked contrast to the treatment accorded the Latter-Day Saint Elders in some parts of England, where they are refused puplic halls even when the accustomed rental is offered. A. W. The Bi istol Mercury of the 23rd inst., gives an account of the mobbing to which several of our Elders were subjected recently. The report manifests a spirit of fairness by introducing the account as follows: All law abiding citizens, and indeed everybody who has the slightest respect for the principle of fair play, will regret to learn that a brutal...
