Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Proceedings of the Massachusetts Historical Society: In Commemoration of the Tercentenary of the Birth of John Milton, 9 December, 1908 In place of the stated monthly meeting of the Society, a public commemoration, under its auspices, of the tercentenary of the birth of John Milton was held at the edifice of the First Church in Boston, on Berkeley Street, on Wednesday afternoon, December 9, at four o'clock. Seats in the chancel were occupied by the President, Dr. Everett, Dr. DeNormandie, Dr. Perry, and Rev. Charles E. Park. A portrait of Milton, made for the occasion, bearing a garland of laurel, stood on an easel at the back of the chancel. Members of the Society and of their families, and invited friends, were admitted on presentation of tickets at half-past three o'clock; and the doors were thrown open to the public at five minutes of four. More than eight hundred persons in all participated, filling the pews and much of the standing-room at the entrance. An elaborate programme of the exercises had been prepared,...
