Every child dreams of fanciful adventures and happily ever after endings, but often, real life takes us on a whole other journey. Written in fairytale fashion, this reality-based grownup tale is the true-life adventure of Jill Elizabeth Wyckoff. At times both shocking and heartbreakin g, she openly shares her heart in this very candid journey of her backpack moments-the defining circumstances that negatively shaped her self-image and self worth; to the life-changing encounter with the kindhearted King who awakens her spirituality and reveals her true identity. Fully empowered, she sets out on a new journey and begins to experience the reality of living in the fullness of who she was created and destined to be. This inspiring story of revelation, transformation and redemption offers wonderful insights that will launch readers into their own adventure of self-discovery and spiritual awareness; a journey that begins with identifying the lies in their backpacks, to a revelation of their true identity, and finally to living in alignment with this truth-a life of freedom, purpose and destiny!.
