Robin Flanigan is a successful Real Estate Agent with a background that only one housewife knows about. She gets a phone call from Child Services; her cousin died and left her eight year old daughter for her to take in. Robin knows nothing about raising children. The father is believed to be dead, until one evening a stranger rings her doorbell. Sky Landers and her husband Monte has a wonderful marriage. Monte owns his own Construction Company. The job is completed and he drives home from Las Vegas, and arrives in LA, only blocks away from his home. He stops at a florist to buy roses for Sky and is caught up in a dangerous robbery. Karla St. James and her husband Martin are happily married. Karla is a bestselling novelist; Martin has his own publishing company. They are financially secured, but Karla has one secret, she shoplifts in different malls. Candace Brown and her husband Kenneth are a close, religious family, the pillar of the community. The ladies respect Candace for her wisdom and encouragement. Although the housewives have different views about life, they will be friends forever.
