Rem-Queen Sheba is the author of her first poetry and short story collection From Foster Care to Fame. A bi-racial child, adopted by an all white family in Detroit city, proper; succeeding three foster homes. One was said to have been sexually abusive but no one knows because no one told. After a dynamic, traumatic and debilitating 13 years with her adopted family, Sheba was sent to a closed facility and strict youth home for the last two years of her high school career. Running away and insubordination only added to the list of her predicaments. Finally, at the age of 17 her adoptive parents gave up their rights and Sheba was made a ward of the court - left to create her own path out of the rubble. After her first born and graduating from college, she could be found traipsing the earth without a string to hold her down - Bethsheba found her revelation of things to come on the stage. Her poetic memoir is a celebration of survival, and demonstrates the...
