Songs of Work and Protest: 100 Favorite Songs of American Workers Complete with Music and Historical Notes (Paperback)

By Joe Glazer, Edith Fowke

Dover Publications Inc., United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. New edition. 272 x 198 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. No other form could capture the history of the labor movement better than the songs sung in times both bitter and courageous by coal miners and textile workers, railroad men and steelworkers, farmers, seamen, and cow-hands as they worked to supply the nation s needs and as they worked to defeat political and industrial tyranny, child labor, hunger, poverty, and unemployment. This collection includes a hundred songs of the people, as they have been sung at one time or another on the workers long road toward freedom and justice, together with the stories of the genuine situations from which they sprang. They are straight trade union songs and ditties; specific songs of miners, textile workers, steel, and railway workers and farmers; typical working songs of sailors, canalers, lumberjacks, and cowboys; songs of the hardships that working men and women have to face during times of depression; philosophic songs and ironic comments on the economic system; songs that grew out of the fight against slavery; and songs expressing the dreams of people of many lands throughout the ages. Often...
