He said to her, Good God, Susan! how came you here? What has brought you from town! She made no answer; but rose directly, and went to the door, and looked back towards him very earnestly; then she retired, shutting the door behind her. The next morning he had notice of her death. This, Lord Westmoreland himself told to Lady Stapleton, who was by birth a Fane, and his near relation. CHAPTER XV. APPARITIONS SEEKING THE PRAYERS OF THE LIVING. With regard to the appearance of ghosts, the frequency of haunted houses, presentiments, prognostics, and dreams, if we come to inquire closely, it appears to me that all parts of the world are much on an equality, only that where people are most engaged in business or pleasure, these things are, in the first place, less thought of and less believed in, consequently less observed; and when they are observed, they are readily explained away: and, in the second place, where the external life--the life of the brain--wholly prevails, either they do not happen, or they are not perceived, the rapport not existing or the receptive faculty being obscured. But although the above phenomena seem to be equally well known in all countries, there is one peculiar class of apparitions, of which I meet with no records but in Germany. I allude to ghosts who, like those described in the Seeress of Prevorst, seek the...
