In the particular case of Denmark, previous and recent publications from several researchers, such as Andersen (The Decline of Class Voting Revisited , 1992), Borre (Old and New Politics , 1995), Knutsen (Voter and Social Cleavages , 2004) and Stubager (The Education Cleavage , 2006), have been devoted to the decline of class voting over the last 15 years. All these authors agree with the assumption that cleavages based on traditional social conflicts have been decreasing in significance and that it fails to explain voters preferences in today s modern Denmark. Instead of that, new cleavages, like sector employment or even new value orientations, decide to a larger extent how citizens cast their votes. In addition to this and compared to the past, New Politics issues like environment or immigration have now a deeper impact on voting choices and are therefore challenging the Old Politics dimension is dominated by economic issues. The purpose of this essay is to enhance the understanding of new cleavages in Denmark by producing comprehensive answers to the following questions: What has caused the rise of new cleavages and how are they characterized How do the new cleavages and New Politics influence the voting choice A problem of writing this paper has been the lack of current data, since most of the analyses to which this paper refers are...
