Rickards, Governor of Montana, December 1, 1894 To His Excellency, John E. Rickards, Governor of Montana: The Trustees of the Montana State Reform School have the honor to transmit to you this, their first official report, and with it the report of the Director of the school made to the trustees, and also a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the institution, made by Mr. H. B. Wiley, the Secretary of the Board. For information in detail in relation to the expenditures of the institution and to the particular mode of its management we beg to refer you to these reports. The Montana State Reform School was established by an Act of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Montana, approved March 1, 1893. In pursuance of the Act the undersigned were appointed Trustees of the institution, and immediately after such appointment qualified and entered upon the discharge of their duties. The citizens of Miles City, in recognition of the distinction conferred by the Legislature in locating the institution in their midst, immediately presented to the State, through the local Board of Trustees, forty (40) acres of land as a site for the institution. This land is one mile eastward of the city, and is of a quality and adaptability unsurpassed for the purposes for which it was presented and accepted by the Trustees. At the earliest moment the Trustees set about the erection of suitable buildings, and pressed the work as fast as prudence and a proper regard for economy would permit; so that...
