On the 10th of February, 1675, came the Indians with great numberst upon Lancaster: their first coming was about sun-rising; hearing the noise of some guns we looked out; several houses were burning, and the smoke ascending to heaven. There were five persons taken in one house, the father and mother, and a sucking child they knocked on the head, the other two they took and carried away alive. There were two others, who being out of their garrison upon occasion, were set upon; one w, as knocked on the head, the other escaped. Another there was who running along was shot and wounded, and fell down; he begged of them his life, promising them money, (as they told me) but they would Before the calendar was reformed, the year commenced on the 25th March, Lady-Day, or Annunciation. This, with the difference...
