Excerpt: .closing his anacondian coil on the City of Vicksburg, residing the next day, the ever memorable 4th of July, in the surrender of Lieutenant General Pemberton with his entire army and the city of Vicksburg. Then, as has been beautifully expressed, the waters of the Mississippi again flowed unvexed by hostile forces from its source to its mouth --the would-be confederacy severed and the field of future operations circumscribed. This, too, was virtually important. Yet, neither Gettysburg nor Vicksburg closed the war. The battles of Lookout Mountain, Missionary Ridge, Atlanta, Nashville, the Wilderness, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, Five Forks, and Petersburg, and Sherman s March to the Sea, were yet to be executed ere the field of Appomattox Court House could loom up to witness the closing act of the gigantic conflict. At many of these points, you my comrades, were actively engaged. Upon many of...
