About the Book Diary Samuel Pepys, author of the incomparable Diary, was born either in London or at Brampton, Huntingdonshire, on February 23, 1632-3, son of John Pepys, a London tailor. By the influence of the Earl of Sandwich, he was entered in the public service. Beginning as a clerk in the Exchequer, he was soon transferred to the Naval Department, and rose to the high office of secretary to the Admiralty. His services were interrupted for a time, on the baseless suspicion that he was a Catholic, during the panic about the supposed Popish Plot, but he was returned to his charge, and held it until the accession of William and Mary. Pepys was a man of very wide interests. He was...
