Thomas C. Sawyer (chairman of the subcommittee) presiding. Members present: Representatives Sawyer and Petri. Mr. Sawyer. Good afternoon. I really am grateful for everybody's flexibility. First of all, having to change the hearing from this morning until this afternoon, and now being as late as I am. I can only apologize and offer my thanks. If this hearing were not so important and timely, I don't suppose I would be quite as concerned about it. The Bureau's progress toward a census design, particularly the test for the next census, is so important, particularly inasmuch as we are operating against difficult deadlines for the 1995 test. It will clearly define what we can and can't do in 2000. I have looked at the Bureau's proposed design. I really want to compliment everybody who has worked so hard to bring it to the condition that it is in since just last May. It has clearly been a real effort. I remember at the time GAO was concerned about whether or not it would be possible to proceed with the kind of fundamental reform that we have been talking about for some time. The Bureau has focused its work on several proposals. They are the notion of a single best count or one number census, the...
