Excerpt: . . . Introduction General Suggestions Do not read or lecture to the group. This package is a guide, not your script. Flexibility is the key to success. Make yourself part of the group. Do not separate yourself physically from the group by standing behind a podium, an overhead projector, or a table. Remember that you are working with adults. Involve the participants in planning, decision making, and problem solving. Value the resources they bring to the group. Encourage them to share their experience, knowledge, and ideas. Observe how the group works together. Who participates the most and who participates the least Do certain participants try to dominate Does anyone withdraw Do not go too long without a break. As a general rule, groups need a break every hour for about 10 minutes. You will need to adjust the timing of breaks to what is going on in the group. Use each group you facilitate...
